対話1

Ben: Are you looking for the basketball club’s video, Rina? I sent a link on Monday.

Rina: I found it, but I need a picture of our first game for a poster.

Ben: The picture on the club’s website is from our second game. Ask Haru. He took some pictures at the first one.

Rina: Good idea. I’ll talk to him at lunch.

Question. Why will Rina talk to Haru?

対話2

Emma: I can take the bus to the art center. Do you know what time the next one comes?

Jin: The number ten bus comes in five minutes, but it goes to the station. The number twelve goes to the art center. It won’t come for another half hour.

Emma: Then I’ll walk. It usually takes me only twenty minutes.

Jin: All right. I’ll see you there after my art lesson.

Question. How will Emma get to the art center?

対話3

Mao: Do you want to practice your speech in the library?

Chris: We have to be quiet there. Could we try the school yard?

Mao: The wind is very strong today. How about using the empty classroom on the second floor?

Chris: Good idea. I’ll get my speech notes from my bag and meet you there.

Question. Where will Chris practice his speech?

問題B 放送

Good afternoon. This is a message for students who are going to help with the winter concert. We will meet in the music room on Thursday instead of Friday this week. Some of you asked if you need to bring a notebook. We will give you a schedule on paper, so a notebook isn’t necessary. Please check the names of the visitors on your copy before the concert. Last year, visitors often stopped at the main entrance because they didn’t know where to leave their coats. This year, we will put a big sign there. A few students will stay near the sign and show people the way to Room Four. Other students will give visitors their programs in the hall. We will decide who does each job at Thursday’s meeting.

Question 1. On which day will the helpers meet this week?

Question 2. What will the helpers near the sign show visitors?
